Loud and Clear

You think you know me but you don't
You try to change me but I won't
I get no respect from you
So this, this is what I'm gonna do

Chorus:

Hear me loud and clear
I don't need nobody but me
I'm fine on my own
Soon you will truly see
Don't think you can change me
I'm not something that you can mold
I know what I want
Boy respect what you have been told

I hear you like to play with my heart
That's fine it won't be torn apart
So here, here is my final plea
Just let me be who I wanna be

Chorus

You think you know you think you see me
But that's not the case
I have my dreams I have the drive
Written across my face
Why can't you just understand
That I, I don't need a man
So take a step away
Cause I'll do it my way

Chorus

Oh woah yeah yeah nah nah
Oooh
Close, close

Chorus x 2
Don't need nobody
