So Close

Chorus:

I trusted you oh so much
And now I know the truth
Though close we already are
Even this close can be oh so far

It probably has crossed your mind
But how can I pretend to be fine
When every breath of my life
Sends a shiver down my spine
I can't breathe, I can't sleep
Without a thought, of you and
I don't know, what I should
Do about, my heartache

Chorus

It doesn't help that I love
Everything about you
It seems you've turned my world
Upside down, forever
But I guess we can only be friends
And I'll try hard to be alright
How can I begin to express
This tumble into helplessness

Chorus

Oh woah yeah yeah
Nah, Nah
Mmm close, close

Chorus x 3 (ad-libs)
